WALL STREET went home cheerful yesterday. Many stocks were up and a premium on oil was announced, refiners paying producers a bonus above last price. This encouraged all stock gamblers. You are promised—like a quarter if you can—that cashless prices will go up to help the deserving oil stock owner.

WHEAT WENT UP with a violent start yesterday, establishing new high prices for the season, "December wheat" going to 11 1/2 a bushel. That leaves the farmer cold. His "December wheat" left him long ago. Somebody else, the agile food speculator, got the higher price.

BUSINESS GETS bigger and bigger. A new business is happy if he had one big store; now he wants stores. Reports at source that Gimbel Brothers in New York, Philadelphia and Milwaukee have added to their "string" the big establishment of Kaufmann & Faber in Pittsburgh. This will bring the Gimbel business up to $150,000,000 a year, a tremendous buying power.

DEY GOOD MEN wonder when James Simpson, of Chicago, will branch out and make of Marshall Field & Co. the biggest of all the combination stores, as it is now the biggest individual store in the United States. Unlimited financing would be easy for Marshall Field. The other day Mr. Simpson, as a small business man, borrowed $100,000 at 15 per cent flat. That is "good credit."

Goodwin in Attacks Fitzgerald as 'Fixer'

SAYS JOHN I. GETS MORE CROOKS FREE THAN ANYONE HE KNOWS

Frank A. Goodwin, Registrar of Motor Vehicles, today denounced a friend of crooks and a sinister shadow in the court house considers the politician named by one of the young things arrested in connection with the recent series of hold-ups.

The youthful peer said that his powerful political friend, John I. Fitzgerald, would get him out of trouble. In his address before an audience of police chiefs in convention at the American House, Goodwin did not mention Fitzgerald by name, but said that politician was responsible for releasing more criminals than any man he knew.

He also pointed out that the man in question is a Representative and a member of the Ways and Means Committee, which has jurisdiction over the salaries and pensions of judges, district attorneys and other court officials. Fitzgerald is a member of the committee as well as being the right-hand man of Martin Lummus and the president of the Democratic City Committee.

The registrar, in addition to his attack on the politician, blamed a member of the Ways and Means Committee, which has jurisdiction over the salaries and pensions of judges, district attorneys and other court officials. Fitzgerald is a member of the committee as well as being the right-hand man of Martin Lummus and the president of the Democratic City Committee.

Police and fire authorities combined in a hunt for the firebug they consider responsible for the disastrous blaze.

The fire started within a few minutes of the time that the last driver on the duty shift had pulled out of the garage in his machine.

Missing 3 Days

Alice Shadrach is missed more by her five brothers and sisters than she is needed by the man who lured her.

Lured from the home where she was the "little mother" of five brothers and sisters, by the call of the better lights and the gill tongue of a diabolical seducer, Alice Shadrach of No. 12 Marble street, Roxbury, is either held captive in the south of her father's, or fears to return home because of her action.

Monday night she left home and none of her family has seen her since, five weeks. Her mother, Mrs. John Shadrach, told the police that Alice had informed her that she was going to a house party in Cambridge, having been invited by a young man who went on a date in Prospect Hall, Cambridge, on Thanksgiving night. She was to meet the man, she told her mother, in the Park street subway station.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shadrach both have their homes south of the city, and it was Alice's lot to do all the housework and take care of the little ones. Father and mother are heartbroken, and realize that there will be no partitioning off the 15-cent "little mother" from the man who lured her.

Her mother gave the police a description of the man. Alice was to meet him and the name for which Alice knew him.

BUSSES CAUSE $42,000 LOSS

Passenger service between Portland and New Haven has fallen off 50 per cent as a result of the withdrawal of three bus lines, officials of the New Haven road today told the Public Utilities Commission. The loss to the road was estimated at $42,000 a year.

The commission was asked to return the road a certificate to resume service between Portland and New Haven and between Portland and Worcester.

Day Hiker for the Motor Truck and the Owners Association, it claims that the going would not be a profitable service and that the road had no right to compete against them.

Announcing—WOLF'S Ten-Pay Buying Plan

Inaugurated to Broaden This Store's
Service to Men and Young Men

Wolf's is more than a store—more than a great clothing establishment. It is a public-serving institution that recognizes its responsibilities, not only to its many thousands of patrons, but to every other individual in the community as well.

The Ten-Pay Buying Plan

Wolf's latest achievement to further this store's usefulness. It is a modern merchandising method that is fast taking a firm grip on the buying public of the entire country.

We have thoroughly investigated every phase of its possibilities and are now ready to extend this service to responsible men and young men on a big, broad plane.

Men's and Boys' Clothes are featured together with Furnishing Goods. The Ten-Pay Buying Plan is a new charge service which permits responsible men to purchase Clothing or Furnishings and pay out of income—a moderate amount at time of purchase—the balance in ten weekly payments of equal amounts.

No Added Cost for This Service

There is no interest or carrying charge for this service. Cash, Regular Charge and Ten-Pay Plan prices are identical.

Men accustomed to purchasing Automobiles, Radios, Homes, Real Estate, in fact practically all commodities, even Investment Securities on deferred payments, may now include Men's and Boys' Clothing. The Ten-Pay Plan is a new and convenient charge service that cannot fail to meet with instant approval.

This Is How the Plan Permits You To Purchase—

$25 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $1.50 a Week

$30 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $2.00 a Week

$35 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $2.50 a Week

$40 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $3.00 a Week

Pay Out of Income

Wage earners in particular who have so many requirements to meet out of their weekly salary check find it inconvenient and at times impossible to purchase the better grades of clothing simply because they cannot afford the cash outlay and therefore are obliged to content themselves with cheaper clothing.

If you think your cash will buy more elsewhere, we agree to buy back the merchandise you have purchased.

$45 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $3.50 a Week

$50 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $4.00 a Week

$60 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $5.00 a Week

$75 Suits and Overcoats
Pay $10 and $6.50 a Week

MAGIC PUZZLES HOSPITAL KIDDIES

By JOHNNY SAXON, The Boy Reporter.

"Hey! Look up his sleeve, AW! You never find one, I kin do that with both hands tied," were some of the wisecracks tossed at Mr. Blackstone, a magician, playing at the new Park Theatre, and a good one at that, by Frank Novakowski, who did a street trade off a wall in South Boston.

Mr. Blackstone did his stuff at the Children's Home and all the girls who were there were made plenty of noise when he pulled a little rabbit out of a roll of paper, then the "kins" of the hospital doors, issue what to say.

When Mr. Blackstone got through he passed around a first filled up with candy and gum, every girl there took a package of gum and said she would keep it till after dinner.

When we got through in the first ward we went to the second one where Mr. Blackstone let Charlie McKnight take a knife to cut a piece of string and little Kenneth Johnson say "Hey white boy, per day knife away?"

"Count," the door, went over the wall the kids in the ward and they all wanted to get him, because Mr. Blackstone gave a rabbit to Frankie Novakowski; they wanted him to give them "Count."

"Alone, all the kids had their pictures taken and they all helped the camera man by giving a great big smile and most of them had a chance to pet the little rabbit given to the tough palooka from "Southie."

The strange case of a Girl who was Two Persons—"Miss Jekyll and Miss Hyde"

Rhoda's Life, with its Duel of Body with Soul,
Strangely Suggests Stevenson's Weird
Character of Fiction—Yet this Story is True.

"Tad," Rhoda answered, "there's a lot you can't know, being here where everything is clean and unspoiled."

IN THE CITY, the smart, charming Rhoda Delamare moved in a highly sophisticated circle. Artists, sculptors, and poets pursuing Beauty, saw in Rhoda the girl of their dreams. The death of a jealous man had been laid at her door.

In the mountains where by chance
she met Paul—son of the man who had died in pursuit of her—

Rhoda seemed innocent and unspoiled.

With her dark hair twisted round her shoulder like a scarf; with her eyes the dark-blue color of damson plums hanging on the trees in September; with her slim grace and virginal ways, the girl fascinated Paul, creating trust in him despite the warnings of his mother.

What could be the end to this romance of Rhoda and Paul, moving against a dark background of tragedy? How can psychologists explain the strange riddle of this girl's life? You will want to know, so read the breathtaking conclusion of the story "Body and Soul," in January SMART SET.

SMART SET presents in every issue a complete view of life in its most fascinating aspects—its comedies, heartaches, intrigues, accomplishments. And every story is true to life—told by someone who knows intimately the colorful drama upon which he lifts the curtain.

Lafayette Mulligan Wins Mr. America Contest
Crowds Cheer as Home Boy Is Awarded Flower Numbers and Street Address of Miss America on 384th Ballot

This picture shows Mr. Lafayette Mulligan in his moment of triumph. Miss Ann Caskey, chairwoman of the judges, is making the presentation speech, in which she stressed the responsibility that he's hanging in with the honor of being designated Mr. America. There was hardly a dry eye in Mechanics Building at the close of the ceremony.

"The next time I see you, I'll be a saxophone solo, I'm tired of everything, but you, by special request!"

Artists at Garmel, says news dispatch, are up in arms over the Government's demand that the houses be numbered for mail delivery.

You can't blame them. Bill collectors are an annoyance.

As it is now, an artist can come home late, get in the living-room and have a perfect alibi.

And the plan of unnumbered houses has been found successful in other respects.

As it is now, an artist can go into a store, buy on credit, and tell the clerk to send the bill to the house with the leaky faucet on Alhambra street.

TODAY'S NEWS PICTURE
As near as I remember, I was walking up the street with money stride.

But my heart was all aflutter. As I lay down in the gutter And a hog came and laid down by my side.

As I lay there in the gutter With my heart still all aflutter I thought how the hog was heard to say: "You can tell a man that hoozes by the company he chooses." And the hog got up and slowly walked away.

I'd like to buy our house-maid a fur coat.

FOXY GRANDPA'S BEDTIME STORY

By Foxy Grandpa
BOBBY, BUNNY and I had been up in Minnesota and while we were there we visited great mines where iron ore was dug out in thousands and thousands of tons. And as it happened when we were coming home we took a ship from Superior, a town near Duluth, which was to carry some of that very ore down through the Great Lakes to Toledo, Ohio.

It was a fine trip and we enjoyed coming through the locks at Rust, St. Marie, where we jumped out on the side of the lock and stood on Canadian soil for a moment.

"What are you going to do with this ore now, Foxy Grandpa?" asked Bobby as we stood on the dock at Toledo. We were watching the great shovels dig out of the ship the thou-

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

Are you tired in the morning?

DE warned Chronic colds, indigestion—diseases of blood starvation—these are almost invariably the result of blood starvation. Night time is old Mother Nature's repair time—she should wake up in the morning full of energy, eager for the coming day. If you are tired, listless, if you are in a generally run-down condition—ready prey for almost any wandering germ.

For more than thirty years, physicians have prescribed Dr. J. C. Pepto-Mangan as the sure way to eliminate blood starvation. They know that its revitalizing iron and manganese content is quickly assimilated by the blood stream and at once distributed to every part of the body, renewing its latent vigor. If the blood is rich, red, energizing—good health will result. All druggists sell Cady's Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tablet form. Start today!

Sore and IRRITATED THROATS

Several remedies lead gratefully from PERTUSSIN. Instantly soothes the throat of the air passages, but by loosening the sticky mucus, gives Nature an opportunity to overcome the congestion and restore a normal condition.

PERTUSSIN is entirely free from "dope" (narcotics, chloroform and all injurious drugs). It is pleasant to take and will not disturb digestion.

Known to physicians for more than 20 years and sold by all druggists in large or small bottles.
